

2005 SPIRIT OF ADVISING AWARD

The award is designed to demonstrate the board and national association's appreciation for local chapter advisers.

AWARD INFORMATION

WHO?

Available to any affiliated 2004-2005 FCCLA chapter adviser. One adviser from each state will be recognized.

WHAT?

2005 Spirit of Advising Award.

WHEN?

State selections are due February 1, 2005.

WHERE?

To be awarded at the 2005 National Leadership Meeting during the Adult General Assembly.

CRITERIA?

To recognize chapter advisers who are constantly faithful, often quietly working behind the scenes to ensure the success of their students. These are the advisers whose patience, good humor, flexibility and skill form the foundation of FCCLA at the local and state levels.

HOW?

State Advisers should use the provided criteria when making their nomination.

Nominations must be made on the attached form by State Advisers/State Contacts.

Deadline for state selection is February 1, 2005.

One adviser per state will be accepted. All decisions are final.

State Advisers will be responsible for getting the award to the recipient if they are unable to attend the National Leadership Meeting.
